Call received from CARAVEL who reported that our man was not listed on the Interpol Wanted List, nor was he listed in the cardfiles of Interpol Office Wiesbaden. CARAVEL added he would be glad to check the central files in Paris personally when he goes there within the next four weeks, without doing it on an official basis, if we wished. [ ] said that [ ] would take this up with him as I did not know yet whether we wanted it checked any further. Sonst nichts. (WAC)

8 May 63.

On 2 May 1963 Caravel personally checked the Interpol card files in Paris and found no card under either possible name. He did this alone without announcing his intention in advance, so there is no chance of cards having been pulled.
